PRINT EXHIBITIONS

Our next Print Exhibition will be at Westminster City Hall in September. Call for entries will begin in July.

Each participant will be able to enter 4-5 prints, determined by the number participating. Prints must be framed with glass and hanging wire, no sawtooth, and there will be a charge of $2.50 for each entry to cover food for the reception and ribbons as this will be a juried show.

Price entries to cover a 10% fee for any prints sold. Prints must be marked on the back with the maker's name, phone number, title of print and selling price.

The prints will be on display for the entire month of September. Makers will be responsible for delivering their prints to City Hall, Westminster at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday morning, September 1st, and we will need volunteers to help in hanging the prints.

We have exhibited prints before at Westminster and some prints have been sold each time. We wish everyone good luck!

BILLBOARD

dr5 CHROME LAB RELOCATES TO DENVER

As of August 5th, dr5 Chrome Lab, now with facilities only in NYC and LA, will open their unique photo lab at 601 Galapago, Denver.

Owner, David Wood, inventor of the dr5 B&W reversal process, (producing transparencies from over 30 B&W film types) decided on this midwest final location to provide better service to customers.

The multi-faceted business will be home not only to the dr5 process and custom B&W negative processing and proofing, as well as a new addition for David & Kathi Wood, the dr5 Gallery, which will offer FREE gallery space for photographers to showcase their work. Other opportunities for the space will include scheduled seminars and workshops. For more info, visit www.dr5.com.

SLIDE SHOW BY BLAINE HARRINGTON, TRAVEL PHOTOGRAPHER

Blaine, named "2005 Travel Photographer of the Year" by the Society of American Travel Writers, will present a slide show of his recent work from around the world at Reed Photo on Thursday, July 7 at 6 pm. Show takes about 1 hr. and there will be a brief overview and Q&A period. He will ask people attending to vote for their top picks on a ballot. If interested in attending, rsvp to Blaine at blaineharr@comcast.net Blaine has photos in the July issue of Popular Photography and other publications. ### Chuckles for the Day:

1) Quasimodo goes to a doctor for his annual check-up. "I think something's wrong with your back," the doctor says. "What makes you say that?" asks Quasimodo. "I don't know," replies the doctor, "Just a hunch." [From the Reader's Digest, Laughter, The Best Medicine, July, 2005 issue]

2) Quote from Jay Leno on the Tonight Show.....
Gas Prices are so high....A woman gave birth to a baby at a gas station, so apparently now, when you fill your tank, they take your firstborn...And at the gas station near my house, they have a slot for your credit card and one next to it for your 401(k).
